Copenhagen, November 7.

ORders are given for proclaiming a Ceſſation of Arms, and Freedom of Commerce, between this Kingdom and Sweden, for ſix Months. We have Letters from Stockholm of the 10th of October, O. S. which adviſe, that Sir John Norris with the Squadron of Britiſh Men of War under his Command, ſailed from the Dahlers the 9th. The Lord Polwarth has received a Letter from Sir John Norris dated the 13th of October, O. S. at which time he was detained by contrary Winds at Elſenap.

Hambourg, Nov. 10. Captain Smith, who commands one of the Britiſh Frigates in the Baltick, arrived at Travemunde on the 7th of this Month: He brought over from Sweden Field Marſhal Count Spar, who has ſent his Retinue directly to France, but is gone himſelf to Hanover, deſigning to proceed from thence to Vienna, where he is to negotiate as Ambaſſadour of the Queen of Sweden, and is to go from thence to the Court of France with the ſame Character. On the 7th Inſtant the Duke of Holſtein ſet out from hence for Hanover: It is ſaid his Highneſs will go from thence to Berlin, and to Vienna, and that he propoſes to return hither in ſix Weeks.

Bruſſels, Nov. 12. The Acts for putting the Emperour in Poſſeſſion of the Civil Government of the Country given up to him by the Barrier Treaty, and thoſe for putting the Dutch in Poſſeſſion of the Extenſion of Limits in Flanders are exchanged, and the Prince Claude de Ligne is to go to Ypres and Tournay, with two Counſellors of the Finances in a little Time, to receive the Oath of Fidelity of thoſe Towns and Chatellenies. The Penſionary of Flanders and the Count de la Ligne, are to go To-Morrow from hence to Ghent about the ordinary Subſidy demanded.

Hanover, Oct. 30, O. S. The King of Pruſſia has been hindered by Indiſpotion from coming hither ſo ſoon as he intended: But being now on the Road and expected here To-Morrow, his Majeſty has put off his Departure till Tueſday the 3d of November next.

Hague, Nov. 14. It was adviſed from Roterdam, that the Yachts with the Men of War commanded by Sir John Jennings, were come into the Maeſe the 6th Inſtant; but it proved a Miſtake. They arrived on the 12th Inſtant at Helvoetſluys, where His Britannick Majeſty deſigns to imbark. The Marqueſs Beretti Landi preſented Yeſterday a Memorial to the States General to perſwade them from entering into the Quadruple Alliance; but this Memorial containing nothing more than a Repetition of his former Reaſonings on that Subject, no Anſwer will be returned to it; and it is expected their High Mightineſſes will this Week declare abſolutely their Acceſſion to that Treaty, conformably to the late Reſolution of the City of Amſterdam. The Province of Gelderland has taken a Reſolution to baniſh all Roman Catholick Prieſts, and to have all Popiſh Churches in that Province ſhut up within three Months, in caſe the Elector Palatine does not redreſs the Grievances of the Proteſtants in his Country.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Houſhold does hereby give Notice, That on Wedneſday the 18th Inſtant, at Twelve a-Clock, will be held a General Court of the Patentees of the Royal Academy of Muſick, at the Opera-Houſe in the Hay-Market, to chuſe Directors; which every Subſcriber is deſired to take Notice of; and that Printed Liſts of the Subſcribers will be delivered at White's Chocolate-Houſe on the 11th Inſtant.

The Paymaſter of the Civil Liſt Lottery, Anno 1713, hereby gives Notice, that he hath Money reſerved in his Hands to diſcharge and pay off all the Principal to N° 75 incluſive, in the 6th Courſe of Payment, with all Intereſt due on the ſame, to the Day of the Date hereof; and that Attendance will be given for that Purpoſe daily, and every Day (Sundays and Holidays excepted) from Nine in the Forenoon till One, at his Office in Channel-Row, Weſtminſter; which ſaid Sum being diſcharged, the whole Sum of Principal paid off on the ſaid Lottery amounts to 69,710 l.
